Dr. Al Hazari Biographical Sketch

A native of Lebanon, Al received a B.S. degree in Chemistry from the American University in Cairo. He also holds an M.S. degree in Chemistry from Youngstown State University in Ohio and a doctorate in Science Education from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville. Al has taught science and chemistry for several years at the school and the college levels here and overseas. Currently, he is the Director of the Undergraduate Chemistry Labs and a Lecturer in Chemistry at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville. In addition, he regularly teaches science education courses in the College of Education. He has received several grants from government agencies, industry, and various organizations to improve undergraduate chemistry lab instruction and also to support K-16 hands-on science and chemistry outreach activities. He was the 2000 recipient of the ACS Helen M. Free Award for Public Outreach. Al is a very active ACS member. He is a former chair of the ACS Committee on Chemical Safety, an ACS tour speaker, and the councilor for the ACS - East Tennessee Section. Recently, he became the President of East Tennessee's Southern Appalachian Science and Engineering Fair. Al is an affiliate of the Institute for Chemical Education and a member of the National and the Tennessee Science Teachers Associations. He has made several presentations and given talks at local, regional, national and international chemical and science education conferences. His book on "Misconceptions in Chemistry" was recently published by Springer.

Did you know we also distribute the newsletter and information on section activities by email?

The Oklahoma Section communicates with its membership through several channels, including: email, this printed newsletter, and our web page. If you haven't been getting notifications of up coming meetings and other section activities by email, perhaps we do not have your current email address.

We use the email address list obtained from and maintained by the ACS. There are 3 different ways you can update your information.

- 1) Log in to the ACS website (www.acs.org) and edit your profile
 —via the Edit My Profile link located under the welcome banner after you login. If you cannot see this, click on show account details.
- 2) Phone the ACS Customer Service team (1-800-333-9511).
- 3) Send an email to the ACS Customer Service team (service@acs.org).

Help us keep in touch!
